

Word Bank:

Analyze, connotations, denotations, literary meaning, literary devices, literary text, rhetorical device, rhetorical question, style, text structure, tone, onomatopoeia

- | | |
|-------|--|
| _____ | The author's attitude toward his subject (serious, humorous, friendly, matter of fact,) |
| _____ | To break down a text to explain the relationship between ideas |
| _____ | A question to which no answer is expected |
| _____ | Literature techniques like flashback and imagery |
| _____ | Cause / effect, chronological, spatial, geographic, compare / contrast |
| _____ | Exact meaning of the word in the text |
| _____ | Dictionary definition |
| _____ | Biography, dram, poetry, and novels |
| _____ | A writer's way of saying things, including word choice, sentence structure, and organization |
| _____ | Implied meaning of the word like the difference between home and house |
| _____ | Exaggeration, repetition, and anecdote |
| _____ | The pronunciation of a word imitates its sound (hiss, buzz) |